Avthar ceramics, Dindigul

On January 24, 2026, the Department of Civil Engineering organized an industrial visit to Avthar Ceramics in Dindigul to bridge the gap between classroom theory and real-world construction practices. Students explored an extensive catalog of over 4,500 designs, learning directly from industry experts about various tiles, granites, sanitary wares, and modern bathroom fittings.

The visit detailed the entire manufacturing lifecycle of ceramic and vitrified tiles, alongside crucial business operations like cost estimation, quality control, and supply chain logistics. Ultimately, this practical exposure deepened the students' technical knowledge regarding material selection, current market trends, and real-time industrial working environments.
