The chief guest highlights the increasing role of women in driving economic growth, discusses the challenges they face, and emphasizes the importance of creating a supportive ecosystem for their success, ultimately inspiring action and celebrating their achievements.

Lastly, the organizers thanked the chief guest, all the attendees, and the organizers for their contributions. When the national anthem is sung, the function is successfully concluded.

Entrepreneurial Traits of Women Entrepreneurs Following are main entrepreneurial traits of women entrepreneurs:

- Imagination: It refers to the imaginative approach or original ideas with competitive market. Well planned approach is needed to examine the existing situation and to identify the entrepreneurial opportunities. It further implies that women entrepreneurs have association with knowledgeable people and contracting the right organizations offering support and services.

- Persistence: Women entrepreneurs must have an intention to fulfill their dreams. They have to make a dream translated into an enterprise. Studies show that successful women have worked hard. They persisted in getting loan from financial institutions and other inputs. They have persisted in adverse circumstances and in adversity.

- Attribute to Work Hard: Enterprising women have further ability to work hard. The imaginative ideas have to come to a fair play. Hard work is needed to build up an enterprise.

- Ability and Desire to Take Risk: The desire refers to the willingness to take risk and ability to the proficiency in planning, making forecast, estimates and calculations. Profits are the reward of risk. Enterprising women take risk, but the risk is well calculated. It offers challenges where chances of survival and failure are on equal footing.

Motivating Factors of Woman Entrepreneurs

There are four motivating factors which influence a woman entrepreneur:

- Recognition: A woman entrepreneur is motivated by recognition in respect of admiration, regard, esteem and celebrity. It is communication tools that reinforce and rewards the most important outcomes entrepreneurs create for the business.
- Profit: It is not the true motivation which influences an entrepreneur. Welfare of the employees, payment of tax to the government, is indirectly improving the living conditions of the entrepreneur. Thus, the real motivation for Apple to create and sell popular products like iPod, iPhone and iPad is probably not money, but the interest.

- Influence: It is the capacity or power of a person to be a compelling force on or produce effects on the actions, behavior, opinions etc. of others.

- Internal Motivation: It is the main factor which motivates businesswomen. It is the internal factors which are very important for the motivation. It includes creativity, respect, and happiness of other people.

Interactive Q&A session

After the chief guest's address, a Q&A session was held. Students were able to ask questions and get answers from the main guest regarding women entrepreneurs. The engaging Q&A session broke down obstacles and stigmas related to talking about women entrepreneurs and encouraged candid conversation on delicate subjects.

Repercussions and Takeaways

- Exploring the prospects of starting new enterprises.
- Undertaking risks and handling economic uncertainties.
- Introducing innovations.
- Coordinating administration and control, and
- Routine supervision.

Conclusion

The session had a significant impact on promoting awareness of how women entrepreneurs might improve their liberation. In modern days, women entrepreneurs are playing a very important role in business, trade or industry. Their entry into business is of recent origin. Women have already shown their vital role in other spheres like politics, administration, medical and engineering, technical and technological, social and educational services. This is true in advanced countries and now in recent years, they have been entering into these fields in our country. Empowering women through entrepreneurship is not just a matter of gender equality, but a powerful catalyst for economic growth, social development, and a more equitable future for all. By fostering an environment that supports and celebrates female entrepreneurs, we can unlock their immense potential and create a more prosperous world.
